

Short CV of Mr. Md Rafiquzzaman

Mr. Md. Rafiquzzaman has joined in Bangladesh Civil Service (Administration) cadre as an Assistant Commissioner in 1983. He did his B.sc (Bachelor degree) with honours and M.Sc. (Master degree) in physics in the year 1977-1980 and 1981 from Dhaka University respectively. He has also completed L.L.B (Bachelor in Law) from Dhaka University. Mr. Rafiquzzaman joined in International Management Institute (IMI) in the year 1992-1993 in Delhi (INDIA) and awarded post graduation Diploma in International Management (Executive M.B.A). During the long carrier of Mr. Rafiquzaman he has served in the field administration (District and sub district) in various positions. Before joining at the National Institute of Mass Communication (NIMC) as Director General he has worked in Information Commission of Bangladesh as Secretary. He was Additional Secretary in the Ministry of Civil Aviation and Tourism, Joint Secretary in Education Ministry, Director General of the Bureau of Non-Formal Education in the Ministry of Primary of Mass Education, Deputy Secretary in Finance Ministry, etc. He has experiences working with the development partners, like World Bank, UNICEF, ADB, etc. He has good experiences in policy level as well as in the implementation level. He is actually a social sector reformist. He is very sincere, honest and hard working govt. official to his commitment. He has travelled many countries in the world and attended international seminars, workshops and training programmes. Mr. Rafiquzzaman has also attended a short course in the University of Philippines, LOS BAÑOS, Philippines and in the Duke University, North Carolina, USA. He has come from a very respectable family. He is beloved with wife and two sons.

He has a good habit of reading and travelling. He believes in good friendship and likes to work for the poor people. He likes flowers. He is blessed with two sons. His wife is also a govt. official.